

STAY SHARP

TRICKS TO LOOK SMART EVEN ON LAZY DAYS

Spectral Visitor heel, by Heavy Machine from Front Row.

Stacked charmed leather bracelets, by Carrie K.

"When I'm in a rush, I throw on a dress, pair it with killer heels and Carrie K jewellery and I'm out the door in seven minutes." — Carolyn Kan

"On fashion-lazy days, I leave it to my shoes to do the walking and talking. A great pair of quirky shoes in cheerful colours makes you look much more polished, even when you team it with simple clothes." — Ann Kositchotitana

Semi-precious stone earrings, by Kendra Scott from Dress Sense.

"I always rely on trendy statement accessories to jazz up a drab or plain outfit instantly. For work days, I like my chunky Liquid Metal bracelets and necklaces, while I turn to Kendra Scott's gold cuffs and semi-precious stone earrings for casual occasions."

— Deborah Ng, owner of multi-label boutique Dress Sense

Bobbi Brown Rich Lip Color in Old Hollywood.

"Slick on a matte, bright red lippie and a little liquid liner for instant glam."

— May Yip

Button-down long-sleeved shirt, by Karen Millen.

"My classic white shirt is key to looking effortlessly polished. But to give it an added edge, I'll tuck it into a high-waisted midi skirt or tailored shorts or pants."

— Trixie Khong

Lauren Jasmine

"For lazy days, I would wear a flattering, eye-catching dress that I can throw on without having to think about mixing and matching. Simply effortless."

— Hazel Chang, co-designer of fashion label Lauren Jasmine by Eclecticism

THE CURVES

TRICKS TO SNAGGING THAT HOURGLASS FIGURE IN SECONDS

“It’s always easier to FAKE CURVES with your upper bod. In other words, a good push-up bra can FAKE AN AMPLE BOSOM quicker than you can say ‘Dr 90210’.”

— Sharon Tulasidas

“My pair of Topshop jeans always moulds me to look more like the letter ‘S’ than an ‘I’. I’d then pair them with a snug tee that I’ll tuck in to accentuate the waist.”

— Trixie Khong, founding designer of jewellery label By Invite Only

“Wrap dresses and anything else that FIT MY BUTT REAL TIGHT, especially designs with drapes and folds that HANG WELL ON THE BODY. I wear them when I feel like being sexy.” — Priscilla Tan

Camile dress, by Chalk.

Blue white striped middle skirt with red belt, by Topshop.

“Try a high-waisted, form-fitting pencil skirt, worn with a skinny belt to accentuate your waist, for an HOURGLASS SILHOUETTE.”

— May Yip

“Go for the ‘50s silhouette — cinched waist, fitted top and a voluminous skirt. In my case, a padded bra would be a prerequisite.” — Tracy Phillips

“This season’s Bolongaro Trever Botanical dress (left) is a great way to fake the curves. It is also the ultimate ‘buffet’ dress — you can tuck into a feast without having to suck it in afterwards.”

— Carolyn Kan, CEO and designer of jewellery label Carrie K
